THURSDAY FEBRUARY 24.

SUFFERING INDIANA.
HER SUPREME COURT REVIVES THE FIGHT IN THE LEGISLATURE.

Chairman Smith beaten in his case against Robertson—Renewal of the contest—The New Party born and called "Union Labor"—Text of the Platform—Hewitt's Rejected Letter.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—The supreme court Wednesday handed down five separate opinions in the Smith-Robertson case, involving the legality of the election last fall of Col. P. S. Robertson as lieutenant governor. President Smith, of the senate, claimed the office and denied Robertson the right to exercise its functions, and the circuit court issued a restraining order, and on this case went to the supreme court. The latter Wednesday reversed the decision, being unanimous in the view that the court had no jurisdiction of Robertson's person, and could not, therefore, issue an injunction. As to the subject matter, three judges held that the court had no jurisdiction, and that a contest involving the right to exercise the functions of a state officer can be determined only by the legislature in the manner provided for in the constitution. Two of the judges held that there was no vacancy in the office as could be filled by an election. The effect of this opinion has been to reverse the decision of the legislature, and there is every probability that the senate will still retain Smith in the chair, and that the Republican members will absent themselves, and thus break the constitutional majority.

The house Wednesday afternoon passed a resolution declaring that it would not recognize the senate or any of its acts unless Robertson was admitted to his seat as president-elect.

"Take that paper back to the man that wrote it and tell him to go to," said Smith, angrily. "But you can't afford to do that," expostulated Demotte. "Yes, I can; I can afford to do anything," said Smith.

"There are eighteen senators in this hall who will not stand such treatment," was the reply. "By — I'll make them stand it," said Smith, and Demotte left the desk. By this time it had become known abroad that Robertson would demand his seat, and hundreds of persons began to crowd into the galleries and hall of the senate, but many were turned away. Senator Huston entered with a paper in his hand, and as he took his seat Senator Fowler moved to adjourn. Huston demanded the floor on a question of privilege, but while he was still talking the motion was put and declared carried. At that Huston became enraged and declared the Democrats were about to meet the question before them, and had adjourned through cowardice.

"Rant a hall and make a speech," sneeringly said Smith. "You are too cowardly to meet the eighteen Republicans," declared Huston. "You'll be all right when you get sober," said Smith. "It was a — cowardly act," continued the excited senator, and the hall soon became a scene of confusion. Several alterations took place between members, but the angry disputants soon dispersed.

The Democrats of the senate held a caucus Wednesday night, Governor Gray, Judge Purdie and ex-Senator McDonald being present. It was decided to ignore the claims of Robertson to the lieutenant governorship, and to refuse him the seat as president of the senate when he makes formal demand for it. It was generally held that the decision of the court has decided nothing regarding the merits of the case, and that the parties to the controversy were in the same relation that they stood before the litigation was begun. A scene is continually expected, and the most intense excitement prevails.

THE NEW PARTY BORN.
What It Considers Necessary for the Nation's Welfare—Its Name.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 24.—The resolutions committee of the Industrial convention worked until late Tuesday night with the platform, but were not ready to report when the convention was closed. The next day morning an hour later than the time fixed, and not more than one-half the delegates were in their seats. The committee on credentials made a final report. Several communications from delegates who were too poor to attend were presented, and they went on business to attend to the time was spent in listening to speeches. G. L. Jones, of Wisconsin, argued that the main question before the people was to get rid of the public and corporate indebtedness of this country, and he proposed to remedy the evil by a graduated income tax, the lending of money by the government to the states, the states to lend to the counties and the counties to the smaller municipalities; the government to lend at 1 per cent, the states at 2 per cent, and the counties at 3 per cent.

Crocker, of Kansas, then made a plea for the Oklahoma "boomers." He characterized the soldiers who have been arresting would-be settlers in the territory as "boomer-busters," declared that the cattle man had possession of the land, and presented a resolution demanding the passage by congress of the pending Oklahoma bill, and that if the bill is not passed the pending contest should be taken to the courts. He closed with a moving story of the wrongs suffered by the boomers.

Mrs. Sovereign, of Milwaukee, declared the government was one of money, by money for money, and there were two classes of people in this country—the money class and the wage slaves, and predicted a despotism if the power of monopoly was not curbed.

James Harper, of Illinois, was loudly called for, and vigorously denounced "watered stock," which he thought the chief cause of the burden of the people. He proposed to prohibit freight or passenger rates on "water," and declared the new party would stop the monopoly.

At the conclusion of Harper's speech the convention adjourned until afternoon. The afternoon session was devoid of interest, the time being consumed in speech-making while the convention waited for the report of the committee on platform.

THE TREMBLING TERROR

GATHERS IN THE DEAD BY HUNDREDS IN EUROPE.

An Awful Calamity Visits the Shores of the Classic Mediterranean.

Travelers returning from the Carnival at Nice, France, have been struck by the presence of the appalling earthquake. A town destroyed and its people scattered in its ruins—The Tremors felt at Nice, Cannes, Avignon and Toulon.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—An earthquake, the effects of which have been terrible destruction of life and property, took place throughout the south of Europe Wednesday at 4 a. m. Details are not yet received, but what has been learned gives promise of one of the most frightful catastrophes for many years.

The shocks were felt at Nice, Cannes, Avignon, Toulon, Marseilles and many other places, and in every city the buildings were more or less injured and in some towns amounted to ruins, overwhelming hundreds in the awful disaster.

Details from that part of the northern shore of the Mediterranean known as the Riviera di Genova, the eastern part of which is called the Riviera di Ponente, show that the disaster was terribly destructive to life and property. At Genoa, a small town near Diano Marina, many houses were overthrown and 300 persons buried in the ruins, none of whom were extricated alive. Besides these, many others were injured by falling bricks and stones, some probably fatally.

The shock section entirely suspended the tracks in many places being thrown out of place or engulfed.

The prisoners in the government jail at Finale Borgo became panic-stricken during the prevalence of the shocks, and made furious attempts to escape. They were overpowered by the guard and finally quieted.

Fifteen people were killed and thirty wounded at Noli. A number were killed and hundreds wounded at Oreglia. One-third of the town of Diano Marina was destroyed.

At Nice houses rocked, walls cracked, and in some cases fell, and persons were thrown to the ground. The people rushed from their houses and fell upon their knees in the streets, praying for deliverance from sudden death. Shocks were also felt at Monte Carlo and Monaco, at which places they were so severe that rocks were detached from the cliffs and precipitated into the sea.

Two violent shocks were felt at Toulon. The first shock was of fifteen seconds' duration, and the second of twelve seconds. The movement was from west to east. At Cannes three shocks were felt. The first shock, which was very violent, lasted for a minute. The second and third shocks were not as heavy as the first. Many persons at this place rushed to the seashore for safety. Nobody was injured. At Avignon three shocks were experienced. The first shock was very severe. Several shocks were felt at Genoa.

There was also a slight shock at Marseilles. The walls of a number of houses in that city were cracked. Shocks were also felt at Leghorn and Milan and several places in the province of Genoa, Italy.

The shocks were felt with great severity at Savona, near Genoa, and a number of houses were wrecked and eleven persons killed at that place.

English and American tourists swarmed in the Riviera, and many persons of distinction were among them. The prince of Wales was at Cannes, and Queen Victoria was very anxious until she received a telegram conveying the news of the disaster.

The government has telegraphed him requesting him to come home as soon as possible to allay anxiety.

The scene at Nice when the earthquake struck the city was one of peculiar terror. The last carnival ball of the season had been given during the night, and the streets were crowded with merry-makers going home. From a scene of festivity and mirth there was an awful change to one of fright and panic.

People rushed hither and thither to get out of the reach of the buildings which they expected to crumble and bury them. There was no one hurt, however, as the shocks were not sufficiently strong to wreck any of the houses except a few of the most frail. The tourists immediately made a rush for their hotels and packed up and took the first trains from the apparently doomed city.

BISMARCK'S MAJORITY.
Estimates Give Him Forty-Three When the Back Counties are Heard from.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—Returns from 352 election districts have thus far been received, showing the choice of 135 Socialists, 111 opponents of the bulk, and failures to elect necessitating new elections in fifty-six districts.

Prominent politicians who have kept tally of the official returns of the election, and forecasting the results of the supplemental elections, state that the new Reichstag will consist of 220 government members and 177 opposition, of all political shades.

De Lesseps on the Nicaragua Canal.
LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Standard's Paris correspondent reports an interview with M. De Lesseps, in which he said the Nicaragua canal would benefit the Panama canal.

He scouted the idea that it could be used for inter-oceanic traffic, owing to the difficulty presented by the locks. The benefit it would be to the Panama scheme was that it would irrigate and fertilize the country through which the Panama canal would pass.

The "Plan" Conspiracy Trial.
DUBLIN, Feb. 24.—At the conspiracy trial Wednesday the crown counsel argued that the Traversers had recommended the adoption of the plan of campaign and were guilty alike with those who had originated it. The judge then addressed his charge to the jury, following the line of argument presented by counsel from beginning to end and hostile to the accused.

Approves of the American Plan.
LONDON, Feb. 24.—The debate on the rules of procedure was continued in the commons Wednesday night. Labouchere, Fyfe and Reid spoke in opposition to closure and De Lesseps argued in favor thereof, by a majority vote, subject to the approval of the speaker. The House then passed the system prevailing in the American congress.
